"Forsite" 19" Suction Grab Bar

It installs and removes without the use of tools and features a very strong suction. With a rotating pivot point in the middle of the bar, this suction grab bar allows you to choose your desired angle or position. The suction colour indicators let you know if the grab bar needs to be re-applied, which a bonus safety feature. Works great on bathroom tile, glass, ceramic and a multitude of other flat surfaces. (Suction grab bars do not work on textured or ribbed surfaces and avoid grout lines for proper placement). Not designed to support full body weight.

"Unique Wellness" Absorbent Underwear

These award winning pull-ups from Unique Wellness are so innovative that they were featured on Discovery Channel's How stuff works and are designed to last up to 8 hours using NASA inspired multi layered InconTek® technology similar to designs used by astronauts in space for long missions. It has a unique scheduled changing system and is therefore is one of the easiest to use. This is revolutionary because changes can actually be scheduled to only once in eight hours/ three in 24 hours putting the wearer or caregiver in control with no worry of any exposure to the effects of urine.
